A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and also gone West in search of health," writes Harry Ritter, of No. 1645 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over five years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would be so stiff and sore that I was hardly able to move about, and often unable to dress myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines, but they had no effect whatever on me, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials: always fresh and reliable.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Typhoid Fever in Washington.

The Health Department at Washington is becoming seriously alarmed over the constant increase and spread of typhoid fever in that city. Since the first of this month 46 cases of typhoid fever have been reported. Up to noon yesterday 11 new cases had been reported and there is a growing apprehension that these figures do not tell the entire tale. August has an unfortunate reputation in Washington as the typhoid fever month, but the spread of the disease this year has surpassed all previous records.

The total number of existing cases at the present time, as given out in an official statement by Dr. Woodward, the health officer, is 166. Two deaths were reported yesterday morning. In an official statement of the situation issued by Dr. Woodward, he refers to a belief that the disease has been spread by flies. He does not believe that flies are the active carriers of the contagion. Dr. Woodward believes that water is the great carrier of infection and that next to water milk probably stands as the greatest agency for the dissemination of the disease.

The water of Washington has for a long time been unfit to drink. It is muddy, repulsive and altogether revolting in appearance. The government is spending millions of dollars upon great filtration plants and it is probable that in the course of time these plants will be completed. It has already been discovered that even when they are completed they will not begin to supply enough clean water for the use of the capital. Meanwhile there will be a constant presence of typhoid fever in the city.

Accident on Electric Road.

With a crash that could be heard for at least half a mile, an electric transfer train on the Willoughby Beach division of the Ocean View electric system, crashed into a freight train yesterday afternoon and Motorman S. B. Thomas, of Richmond, in charge of car No. 8, was instantly killed and three of the four passengers on the car were painfully injured. None of the injured are fatally hurt. Motorman J. B. Chism, in charge of the big electric locomative which was pulling the freight train, jumped when he saw that a collision was inevitable. In the collision the big passenger car was completely demolished by the stronger built freight motor. Railway officials say Thomas had orders to run to Ocean View and there wait for the arrival of the freight train, which, they assert, he knew was following him. Thomas made an unusually quick run from Willoughby Beach, and, after taking on four passengers at Ocean View, started on the return to Willoughby Beach. He met the incoming freight at Government Bend, near the government reservation. Mr. Gibbs, one of the injured men, when removed to the hospital, said that while the passenger train was running at a high rate of speed, rounding the curve, he saw immediately in front of them the freight train also going at full speed Before any of the passengers had a chance to rise in their seats the collision occurred. Motorman Thomas stuck to his post and was killed. Both his legs were cut off in the collision.

Murder and Suicide.

In a frenzy of jealousy, Mary Matthews, of Brooklyn, went to the top floor apartment of her house yesterday afternoon and fired two bullets into Martha Martin, killing her instantly. Returning to her own apartments, Mrs. Matthews stood in front of a mirror and fired two shots into her own body. She lived only long enough to learn from neighbors that the other woman was dead. She was insanely jealous of the girl, a very lightskinned and pretty mulatto. On Monday the Matthews woman met Martha, in the hallway and accused her of trying to take her husband from her. "You are crazy, woman," retorted Martha as she flaunted out of the house. "Maybe I am crazy, but that won't help you," The Matthews woman was overheard to remark. Yesterday afternoon Martha Martin was ironing when the Matthews woman walked into her kitchen and fired two shots. One bullet struck the girl in the left side above the heart, the other lodging in her right temple. Death froze the first scream of fright and surprise on her lips. Mrs. Matthews walked coolly down stairs to her own room, stood before the mirror, and, by a strange coincidence, shot herself in the identical manner she had shot her victim. One bullet passed just above the heart, the other in the right temple. She was dead before the ambulance surgeon arrived.

The prompt results produced by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy together with its pleasant taste have won for it a place in many households. Mr. W. T. Taylor, a merchant of Winslow, Ala., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and also with men on my place, for diarrhoea and colic and it always gives relief promptly and pleasantly." Attempt to Wreck Train.

Robert Washington, Robert Jefferson and Geerge Brown, young negro boys, were arrested yesterday morning by the Winchester police on information furnished by Superintendent G. A. Ogline and Detective Powell, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad force, and lodged in jail on the charge of having attempted to wreck a freight train on the Valley Division of the Baltimore and Ohio near Winchester last Sunday morning. The prisoners were given a hearing yesterday afternoon and held to await the action of the grand jury. Jefferson was admitted to bail in the sum of $500, and the other two were jailed. Engineman Carver, who was running an extra westbound freight train last Sunday, reported that at Stines Crossing, a mile east of Winchester, his train struck several railroad ties piled on the track. The train was not derailed, however, and little damage was done. Superintendent J. E. Spurrier, of the Valley Division, put the case in the hands of Baltimore and Ohio detectives, who have since been working quietly. Strong evidence was secured against the boys Monday night and their arrest followed. All three prisoners signed a written confession, in which they said that they piled the ties on the track. The eldest boy is sixteen years of age.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists at 50c a bottle.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 9, 1905.

THE MEETING last night at the Opera House was a genuine democratic rally, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested by the many present. The first speaker, Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, stalwart of the stalwarts, whose name is so familiar to all in the Old Dominion, and whose labors in behalf of the democratic party in the State are so justly appreciated, gave a most encouraging account of the political conditions in Virginia, and stated with the utmost assurance that republican dreams as to the outcome next November would be dissipated as they ever have been by the usual sweeping democratic victory. Mr. Swanson, who followed enlisted the attention of his audience for about an hour and a half. He was at his best, and he spoke with fervor. His speech abounded in instruction, patriotism and fidelity to the democratic party, while it was punctuated with pleasantry which was greatly relished. Judge Williams, the last speaker, proved to be an orator to the manner born, and while his remarks were brief they abounded in practical observations which naturally impressed his hearers. The primary election is less than two weeks off, and from all that can be learned the democratic party is in the best condition. The candidates nominated will, as usual, receive the undivided vote of the organization at the general election in November.

URGING THE maintenance of a high protective tariff as the one thing needful for the growth and development of Virginia's resources, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw appealed to the republican State convention in Roanoke yesterday for a perpetuation of party rule in national affairs. It was a partisan address, teeming with fulsome praise of the administration and emphasized only by a bitter attack upon every democratic policy that has ever been put in operation. Remembering for a moment the noble men that Virginia has given to the democratic party—men whose utterances and deeds have illumined the pages of American history and helped to make the republic great, and fearful that he might have gone too far—he ceased his attack long enough to say: "Please do not misunderstand me. I bring no criticism of the members of the opposite party. As good men as ever lived, as patriotic citizens as ever breathed, as good business men as I know, and as good friends as I now cherish, disagree with me politically." He then went on to say: "If Virginia has not maintained her prestige it is because factional devotion to traditions has supplanted that thoughtful considerations of public questions which marked the careers of the fathers." Secretary Shaw should be told that whenever Virginia failed to maintain her prestige it was when she was under republican rule.

IT IS now said that if fully enforced, the Chinese boycott will entail a loss on New England cotton manufacturers alone of $10,000,000 a year. What its effect will be on other lines of business throughout New England is problematical, as well as its direct effect on wage earners dependent on these industries. But that it will run toward the $20,000,000 mark is conceded by every exporting and brokerage house in Boston, for New England trade with China direct is enormous, in addition to the exports sent to other countries which eventually find their way to China. Latest advices received by these houses is that the antipathy to anything American is growing rapidly, and that the axe will sink deep into American trade. The American have but themselves to thank for this condition of affairs, for that they have treated the Chinese most shamefully goes without saying.

DISPATCHES FROM Roanoke to northern papers state that the State republican convention, now in session in that city, "is the most representative gathering of white republicans ever held in Virginia and perhaps in the South, and is practically devoid of negro delegates, there being not a dozen representatives of the race in the whole convention." Say what they will the negro is the bone and sinew of the republican party not only in Virginia, but in the South, and without him the republicans have never won a victory in this section. Having been ridden almost to death, he is now to be thrown aside; but the republicans will learn that even the worm turns.

FOR SOME years past the republicans of Pennsylvania, with considerable regularity, have returned a party majority of about 75,000. In Philadelphia yesterday Colonel Sheldon Potter, director of public safety, declared after an examination of the returns of the canvass of election divisions, by policemen, and of information received through private sources that fraudulent registrations, as practiced by the republican managers, will reach 75,000 Putting two and two together shows clearly how the big majority is secured. But Pennsylvania republicans never tire of howling about election frauds in the South.

TWO PRESIDENTIAL booms were launched last night—one in Manila by Representative Payne for Secretary Taft and the other in Roanoke, Virginia, by Secretary Shaw for himself. But the presidential election is three years off and there is nothing so uncertain as politics.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., August 9.

It is announced at the Department of Commerce and Labor that Marcus Braun, government immigration inspector, yesterday forwarded to Commissioner of Immigration Sargeant his resignation to take effect at once. No reason is assigned for the action. There is a story going the rounds that Braun resented the order that he wear an inspector's uniform while on duty at Ellis island. Braun attracted much attention a few months ago by whipping a Hungarian detective. The leader of the Hungarian republicans in New York had been sent to Austro-Hungary to investigate reported collusion between government officials and steamboat companies in regard to the deportation of emigrants to America. The detective was found going through Braun's mail and the inspector resented it. The Washington officials had to take a hand in the incident and Braun did not stay there long. He liked special missions but is said to have loathed routine inspection at Ellis island.

The War Department this morning received a dispatch from General Corbin, commanding the troops in the Philippines, stating that Captain Walter B. Barker, of the Quartarmaster's Department of the army, died this morning at Takeo, Japan. The War Department was also informed of the death this morning in this city of Captain Horace M. Reeve, of the General Staff and the Third infantry. Captain Reeve, who is a native of this city, died from typhoid fever.

At the request of Third Assistant Secretary of State Peirce, who has charge of the official arrangements for the entertainment of the Russian and Japanese peace plenipotentiaries at Portsmouth, N. In getting out the general crop report tomorrow Secretary Wilson of the Agricultural Department will test his new system of compilation of these statistics on which he has been working for several weeks. He believes that never again will there be an opportunity for a Holmes to become rich by the premature use of information gathered at goverment expense. For a week some eighty clerks in the bureau have been tabulating reports received from township and county correspondents on all crops, except cotton, the report on that staple having been given out on August 3. But they know not what they do, so those at the head of the bureau say, and every effort is being made to keep the report secret till it is made public by Secretary Wilson.

Announcement is made at the Postoffice Department that on account of the yellow fever epidemic in the vicinity of Vinton, La., stopping train service to and from that place the postmaster there has been ordered to close the office. This is the first office to be closed on account of the fever.

The Taggart Divorce Case.

Wooster, O., Aug. 9.—Thomas Moraldo, Captain Taggart's Filipino valet at Fort Leavenworth, was the first witness when the trial of the Taggart divorce case was recommenced this morning. Speaking in fairly good English he described what he called a Japanese night dress, which, he said, Mrs. Taggart wore when she received officers at her house. Col. Miner and Lieut. Fortesque, he said, were frequent callers. He testified: "I remember one night when Captain Taggart was in Kansas City, during the flood, Lieut. Fortesque and another officer called at the house about nine o'clock. Mrs. Taggart told me to go to bed. At nine o'clock the next morning Fortesque came again and sat in the parlor. He stayed half an hour. Mrs. Taggart wore a Japanese night dress. About 12:30 he came again and entered without ringing the bell. He met me in the hall and asked for Mrs. Taggart. I said she was in her room and he went upstairs. I went to the kitchen. Later I saw him come out from her room and go down stairs. I saw her in the room. She still wore the Japanese night dress."

Bakers' Strike.

New York, Aug. 9.—An attempt was made today to settle the strike of the "Kosher" bakers of the East Side, which has resulted in almost bringing a bread famine upon that populous district, but it failed because of the refusal of the employers to recognize the bakers' union. A ten-hour work day and a wage scale of $20 a week for first bakers and $15 a week for helpers was offered by the bosses, but declined because of the refusal to recognize the union. Samuel Kurtz, leader of the strikers, threatened today that a sympathetic strike in other than the "Kosher" bakeries would result if the fight goes on much longer. There was more trouble today as a result of the strike and attacks were made on venders who tried to sell bread in the Jewish quarter. In numerous instances the carts of the venders were overturned and the bread trampled under foot by the strikers and their sympathizers. It was noticeable that Jewish women and girls were the leading spirits in these attacks. The shops of several bakers who tried to sell bread were raided and the stock was destroyed. The police of four stations had a hard time trying to keep order.

Today the election of officers will take place.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the Virginia State republican convention meet in Roanoke yesterday to nominate a State ticket.

When called to order at 2 o'clock by Chairman C. Bascomb Slemp, about a thousand delegates were present. Only a few negroes attended.

J. Lucian Gleaves, the temporary chairman, pleaded for harmony and asked for a "square deal at the polls." Every mention of President Roosevelt's name was wildly cheered.

Committees were appointed and a recess taken until 8 o'clock that evening.

When the convention reassembled, the reports of credentials and permanent organization committees were received and adopted.

There was a contest among the delegates from the Fourth district over a negro representative from Nottoway county. It ended by the colored man being ousted. The two contesting delegations from Portsmouth were seated with one-half a vote each. Mr. Morgan Treat was chairman of the committee on credentials and its report was adopted.

D. Laurence Groner, of Norfolk, was chosen permanent chairman, and P. H. McCall permanent secretary. After Mr. Groner's speech of acceptance, Representative Campbell Slemp, the only republican member of Congress from Virginia, was introduced, and he, in turn, introduced Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, who had been invited to address the convention. Mr. Shaw was greeted with cheers.

At the conclusion of Mr. Shaw's address the convention adjourned until today when the committee on resolutions will report.

In his address Secretary Shaw made some reference to self-government. He said:

"My appeal to you, and through you, to every voter of Virginia is that you so vote as to conserve the peace and integrity of the commonwealth and the best interests of every other citizen. All I ask is that the elector be, if not as great, certainly as conscientious and as true a statesman at the polls as he demands his representative to be in the halls of legislation."

The Secretary touched upon the growth and development of the United States, and of Virginia's resources. Concerning Virginia, he said:

"Virginia is a great State. Virginia is rich in resources, rich in history, rich in blood and at one time she was the richest of all the states in statesmanship. If her wealth of statesmanship has been less noticeable in recent years than in previous periods, let me assure you that it is because greater stress has been laid upon factional politics than upon the wise solution of public questions. If Virginia has not maintained her prestige it is because factional devotion to traditions has supplanted the thoughtful consideration of public questions which marked the careers of the fathers.

"Virginians have remained loyal stockholders in the great corporations; their representatives have appeared on the board of directors, but they have not been adequately represented on the executive committee. I invite them back to their appropriate place among leaders of thought and leaders of action.

"Please do not misunderstand me. I bring no criticism of individual citizens. I bring no criticism of the opposite party. As good men as ever lived, as patriotic citizens as ever breathed, as good business men as I know and as good friends as I now cherish, disagree with me politically. I am not speaking of the spirit, or of the patriotism, or the statesmanship, even, of individuals. I speak only of the spirit and the statesmanship of parties."

Today's Telegraphic News

The Peace Conference.

Hotel Wentworth, Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 9.—The Japanese envoys and the members of their suite and the members of the Russian suite breakfasted in the public dining room this morning. Count Witte and Baron Rosen, the Russian envoys, were served in their private apartments. It was nine o'clock, however, before their wait was rewarded. Minister Takahira and Baron Komura bowingly acknowledged several salutations. They ate sparingly and with great deliberation, and their automobile was at the hotel entrance before they had finished. The order "No cards" prevailed in the apartments of both envoys.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 9.—Today the peace envoys of Russia and Japan began their great battle of wits. The first session of the peace conference began shortly after 10 o'clock this morning in the general stores building at the navy yard. Arriving in automobiles the envoys of Russia and Japan were escorted by Secretary Peirce to the rooms on the second floor prepared for them. Then Secretary Peirce when all were gathered in the big council chamber announced that it was his pleasure as the United States government representative to turn the rooms over for the use of the envoys of Russia and Japan and assure them of the interest that the United States felt in the outcome. Then Mr. Peirce withdrew to the rooms reserved for himself and then the envoys were left face to face to settle down to business.

Hotel Wentworth, Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 9.—The first meeting of the peace envoys has come to an end. Count Witte and Baron Rosen returned in an automobile at noon. The Japanese envoys have not yet returned. M. Sato, spokesman for the Japanese, was positive this morning that today's sessions of the envoys would be barren of important results. Informal preliminaries, he thought, would occupy most of the time.

The session lasted less than an hour. It was announced unofficially immediately after adjournment that the order of business had been agreed upon; that the language to used should suit the convenience of the individual members and that the second session should be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow. Baron Rosen stated that if a treaty were agreed upon, it would most likely be in French. From a high, but unofficial, source it is learned that the first action taken by the envoys today in the conference was the presentation and reading of President Roosevelt's indentical note to Japan and Russia advocating peace and urging the appointment of plenipotentiaries. This formed the basis of the conference. The answer of the Japanese government, which was an unqualified acceptance of the invitation, and which was made public at the time, was then read and made a part of the records. The acceptance of the Russian government was then presented.

Portsmouth, Aug. 9.—After the return of the plenipotentiaries to the hotel from the navy yard, Mr. Sato, on behalf of the Japanese, made the following statement: "Today's meeting was entirely informal for the purpose of settling the method of procedure. In that meeting it was decided that formal meetings will commence tomorrow at 9:30. Meetings will be held twice a day, one from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., and the other at 3 p. m. to 5:30 or 6 p. m., subject to such modification as may be agreed upon by the plenipotentiaries. No serious business was transacted at this morning's session."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—Officials connected with the foreign office have been greatly impressed by a telegram received from London which says: "President Roosevelt has other means to bring about peace in the event of the failure of the negotiations." The message has caused a great deal of discussion as to just what the "other means" may be. One high official in commenting on the telegram said: "A very clever and energetic statesman like President Roosevelt may astonish the world."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—M. Witte, Russia's ranking peace plenipotentiary, has cabled to the Czar that the present situation in regard to the peace negotiations is indefinite, but that his reception at all points where he has visited in America has been much more cordial than could possibly have been expected.

Swimming the English Channel.

Dover, England, Aug. 9,—F. W. Burgess, the Yorkshire swimmer, made another attempt today to swim the English channel. He started at six o'clock this morning under favorable circumstances. The sea was as smooth as glass and Burgess made great headway. The distance he covered in the first three hours is considered to be remarkable. Burgess has made two previous attempts to swim the channel. A year ago he made his first effort and on July 28 made the second attempt. On that occasion he was forced to give up after getting within three miles of the French coast, because he sprained one of his legs.

Dover, Eng., Aug. 9.—At 12:30 o'clock Burgess had covered eleven miles and was swimming strongly.

Dover, Eng., Aug. 9.—The latest report received from Burgess this afternoon said that he was within five miles of the French coast and was swimming well, with confidence in his ability to complete his hard task. The weather continues to be favorable.

Attempted Suicide.

New Haven, Aug. 9.—Owen Austin Garnsey, a student at Sheffield Scientific School up to 1904, when he left the school, who attempted suicide in this city last midnight, was reported at the hospital today as doing as well as could be expected. Garnsey was found on the steps of the house of Dr. H. M. Welch, at 44 College street. A young woman was with him. The doctor sent him to the hospital where it was ascertained he had taken tables of bichloride of mercury. The poison was pumped out of his stomach, and he has a slight chance of recovery. The young woman who was with Garnsey called at the hospital, but neither she or Garnsey would give information about themselves. Garnsey's name was found in a bank book which he carried which gave his address as 234 Central Park West New York City. His relatives were notified and this morning came here. They declined to make any statement as to the cause of the man act and claim not to know the young woman who was with him, and who had disappeared this morning.

The Market.

Death of Archbishop Chapelle.

New Orleans, Aug. 9.—Archbishop Chapelle died of yellow fever at 12:30 this evening.

The Albany Disaster.

Albany, August 9.—Twelve are known to be dead, twenty-seven injured and in the hospitals, and over forty are missing as a result of the collapse of the John G. Myers Department store on north Pearl street yesterday morning. That a score or more bodies still remain beneath the wreckage seems a certainty. The property loss is estimated at a million dollars. The fact that fire did not break out has made it possible to save considerable of the stock. That it occurred at an early hour was also fortunate, for had it occurred an hour later the store would have been thronged with buyers, and in that case the loss of life would been much greater. The cause of the disaster seems to have been the giving away of a brick pier on which rested an iron column supporting one of the center walls of the building, the collapse being due to an excavation made beneath a pier for a foundation for which new work forming part of extensive improvements was to rest.

Yellow Fever.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 9.—According to the Mayor's proclamation business houses were closed today and everybody engaged in general sanitary work. As a result of the proclamation of the State Board of Health, issued today, threatening to call out the militia if the shotgun quarantines were not relaxed to admit of necessary traffic and travel under the board's quarantine regulations, it is believed useless restrictions are somewhat relaxing. The loan of one hundred thousand dollars by the State to the city is proving a most popular movement and no legislator has so far raised his voice against it. Up to six o'clock last night a total of 616 cases with 112 deaths were reported. There were sixty new cases reported yesterday.

New Orleans, Aug. 9.—At 10:30 three deaths and 11 cases had been reported.

Alleged Plot.

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 9.—The Dispatch says that a number of special Russian police agents arrived in London last night for the purpose of unearthing a plot which is supposed to be on foot to assassinate the Czar and the Russian Grand Dukes. The special agents are acting under instructions of the Russian government which is very anxious to secure detailed information in regard to the supposed plot. Ever since Grand Duke Sergius was killed with a bomb heavy insurances have been effected in London, Paris and Berlin on the lives of the Czar and Grand Dukes by Europeans and American anarchists, and this has added to the anxiety of the government. The police agents are also keeping a close watch on the movements of anarchists who are expected to go to Boston to attend a congress of anarchists to be held soon.

Virginia Republicans.

Roanoke, Va. Aug. 9.—The republican convention this morning adopted a platform which endorses the national republican platform plank of sound money, protective tariff, Panama canal, territorial expansion, a big navy, Roosevelt's administration, clean elections, higher education, free school books, a non-partisan judiciary and keeping the sacred oyster rocks of the state from invasion. The platform further denounces stealing in public office, and deplores the states part played in national prosperity. After the platform was adopted the rules were suspended and State Chairman C. B. Slemp was re-elected by acclamation. Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond, was then placed in nomination for Governor by U. S. Attorney T. Lee Moore, amid strenuous applause. The Lewis nomination was made by acclamation.

Bank Closed.

Denver, Aug. 9.—The Western Bank has closed its doors and is now in the hands of an assignee. The Denver Savings Bank opened its doors at 10 a. m., and the big run started Monday afternoon was resumed. A slight run was started at the Western Bank yesterday afternoon.

Denver, Aug. 9.—Leonard Imboden, the power behind the Denver Savings Bank, a short time ago held a heavy interest in the Western, but is said to have sold out. The statement is now made that both of the banks have closed interests in common.

Wreck Caused by Drunkenness.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—It is officially stated that the cause of the frightful railway wreck which occurred yesterday between Spremberg and Goerlitz, Prussia, in which twenty lives were lost, was due to the drunkenness of the station master who misunderstood the signals and dispatched two trains running toward each othor on the same track.

One of the victims of the collision was Henry Palas, Count von Plauen, son of Prince Henry XXVI of Reuss.

Whisky in the Ice Cream.

Jersey City, N. J., Aug. 9.—At an ice cream festival given under the auspices of the Church Society at Annandale last night several young women became intoxicated after eating the ice cream. Investigation revealed the fact that a large quantity of whisky had been poured in the tub of cream. Several prominent young men of the town, it is alleged, are guilty.

Imperial Rescript.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—An imperial rescript has been published authorizing the holding of local and general congresses for the purpose of discussing plans to better the domestic and foreign commerce of the country. The members of the congresses will be elected by the various stock exchanges, zemstvos and agricultural societies.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 9.—During the first hour the stock market gathered increased force and showed more uniform strength than at any time since the present upward movement has been in progress. Gains ranging from ½ to 2½ points were made all through the list with the business extending from specialties and high priced issues to stocks more in favor with the general speculative public.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. Meeting Last Night

Speeches by Messrs. R. Taylor Ellyson, Claude A. Swanson and Samuel W. Williams.

There was a large gathering of ladies and gentlemen last night at the Opera House to hear speeches of Messrs. Claude A. Swanson, candidate for Governor; R. Taylor Ellyson, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and Samuel W. Williams, candidate for Attorney General. Music enlivened the scene and there was considerable enthusiasm.

The speakers reached the hall about 8 o'clock and after the band had discoursed for a few minutes, Dr. W. M. Smith arose and in a few well-chosen remarks introduced Mr. R. Taylor Ellyson, who was the first speaker.

Mr. Ellyson was received with considerable applause. When it had subsided the speaker began by saying he would be brief. He spoke about fifteen minutes, and merely alluded to the several issues now confronting the voters of Virginia. Mr. Ellyson in his reference to Mr. James R. Caton, of this city, who at the beginning of the canvass was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, paid deserved compliments to that gentleman, among other things saying that at the outset he experienced pleasure at the realization of the fact that he had had such a worthy competitor. He also felt grateful to Mr. Caton for the manner in which he had withdrawn from the contest later and for his kindly expressions toward him. He would ever feel thankful to Mr. Caton, whom he regarded as a worthy and capable gentleman. Considerable applause followed Mr. Ellyson's expressions toward Mr. Caton. The speaker said there were many questions he would be pleased to lay before the voters of Alexandria had he the time, but, as he had promised to speak but fifteen minutes, it would be impossible to do them justice in so short a time. He took up the subject of education and in a concise manner called attention to the needs of the system. Among other things he referred to General Lee's observations concerning the education of the people. The speaker said better teachers were needed for whom better pay should be provided. Mr. Ellyson said the salaries of public school teachers had increased but slightly since 1871, the year in which the system was formulated.

He produced a number of interesting facts in connection with the public school system. The speaker subsequently referred to other matters which are now claiming attention in the State, and announced his approval of the employers' liability bill, his opposition to convict labor entering into competition with honest labor, but his approval of working convicts upon public roads. In conclusion Mr. Ellyson alluded to the Roanoke convention and the dreams of those who were about to nominate a State ticket to oppose the democratic nominees. He said, as chairman of the democratic State committee, he could positively forecast another sweeping victory for his party next November, no matter who the democratic candidates may be.

Mr. Ellyson was vociferously applauded as he took his seat.

After more music by the band Dr. Smith again advanced for the purpose of announcing Mr. Swanson. The doctor made a short but appropriate speech in introducing Mr. Swanson, in which he paid many compliments to that gentleman, making special reference to his candidacy for Governor four years ago, his defeat at Norfolk and his subsequent earnestness in entering the canvass in the cause of his successful competitor.

Among other things Dr. Smith said: "Great, indeed, must be the inducement to tempt me from the quiet pursuit of my profession to the limelight of politics, but I feel compensated in having the proud privilege of introducing to this audience the fairest and gamest fighter that ever threw his castor into the political arena." In reviewing Mr. Swanson's career he described him as "loyal to his friends, lofty in his ideals, heroic in defeat, and clean morally and physically." He described Mr. Swanson's conduct after his defeat at the Norfolk convention, and said that convention had made two governors of Virginia, one to succeed the other, for thousands who went to the polls and voted for Montague, the nominee, were thinking of Swanson and were only awaiting an opportunity to vote for him.

When Mr. Swanson advanced the applause was deafening and prolonged. When it had finally subsided the speaker began by saying that he appreciated Dr. Smith's expressions of friendship, and whether he carried Alexandria or not (voices—"You will carry Alexandria"), he was proud of such friends. Mr. Swanson said he always liked Alexandria; it was the first city he carried four years ago. It was his Marengo—his Waterloo was elsewhere. He placed himself at the disposal of the people of Alexandria and would do anything within reason for them. The speaker then made reference to the number of ladies in the audience and after some pleasant remarks concerning the fair sex, he began his speech in earnest by announcing his candidacy for Governor of Virginia. He alluded to criticisms which had been made concerning him, and said it had been his honest ambition ever since he was a country boy to become Governor of Virginia, and told of his early struggles in his rural home and his many hardships before he became a public man. He said in early life it had been his ambition to become Governor of this old commonwealth. It was the greatest position within the gift of the people, and one which carried with it labors and responsibilities, not mere dress parades or the privilege of presiding at county fairs. Mr. Swanson then proceeded to recount the multitudinous duties of the Governor, the many appointments he makes, &c., and appealed to his hearers to vote for a candidate for the position after due deliberation and from patriotic and conscientious convictions. The speaker referred to his candidacy four years ago, his disappointment at failing to secure the nomination and his arduous labors in behalf of Governor Montague, his successful opponent. Mr. Swanson recounted his work of four years ago, after he had failed to secure the nomination for Governor—a work he had carried on at his own expense in the interest of the nominees of the democratic party. The speaker said it was generally understood that the Norfolk convention had nominated two candidates for Governor—one for 1901 and the other for 1905. He had traveled throughout Virginia and from all he could hear and see he was confident he would receive the nomination. He subsequently alluded to Mr. Willard, one of his competitors in the gubernatorial race, and made certain strictures against him in connection with the Department of Labor bill, the Jim Crow law and other matters, and charged him with voting against the employers' liability bill, which came before the legislature while Mr. Willard was a member of that body. Mr. Swanson was severe upon certain of his political enemies who had charged him with giving Governor Montague a half-hearted support, and appealed to the history of the last campaign as a refutation of the slander. Later Mr. Swanson referred to his course in Congress during the past fourteen years, and asserted that he, during all that time, had devoted himself to the interests of his State and had done all he could for this commonwealth. He made special reference to his labors in behalf of navy yard employees, many of whom were in the audience, and vociferous cheers followed. Toward the close of his speech Mr. Swanson turned his attention to Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney of Alexandria county. He said that in the fourteen years he had been in public life the first charge that was ever brought against him was last Thursday, and when he looked around for the author he found it was "one Mackey, of Alexandria county." He said: "Slanderers generally have to go where they are not known in order that their slanders may have any effect, and Mackey is evidently known here, as he had to go all the way to Roanoke to get his slanders published; and further, I am told that he had to pay 20 cents a line for the publication. This creature is the first one to bring any slime or filth into this gubernatorial fight, and I am glad that he is not a Virginian. He has picked up something that the republicans of Virginia would not soil their hands with, as one republican editor refused to publish his slander except as advertising matter. Now, why should this creature pay for the publication of his 'charges?'" Mr. Swanson then explained that he had, in company with 190 Senators and Congressmen, "men," he said, "so reputable that Mackey will not find himself in such decent company if he lives a thousand years," got increased pay for certain underpaid postoffice clerks in his district. He said there was no law fixing the salaries of clerks in third and fourth class postoffices, and when he could get the salaries of his constituents increased he would do so with all his heart. Continuing, Mr. Swanson said: "If Mackey and his gang think that $50 a month is too much pay for an honest and competent clerk, let them come out and say so. I have no doubt that it would be excessively high pay for Mackey, though." This statement was greeted with yells and applause. In connection with the Hampton postoffice matter, Mr. Swanson said that office was not in his district, but he had united with Representative Maynard to have the lease of the office renewed at $750 per annum, rather than have the office moved next to a bar-room to save $120 a year, and because he has every reason to believe the prople wanted the office to remain where it was. Mr. Swanson closed his references to Mackey by saying: "He is a slanderer by trade and a liar by instinct, who lives in Washington and circulates his slanders in Virginia." After announcing himself in favor of a business administration of the office of governor and a revival of business in Virginia, he took his seat amid continued applause.

Mr. Swanson was followed by Judge Williams, who spoke briefly in behalf of his candidacy for the attorney generalspip, during which he appealed to his hearers to give the southwest one place on the ticket. His speech was earnest and thrilling throughout.

At the close of the meeting the speakers held an impromptu reception and shook hands with large numbers of those who were in the audience.

About 150 employee of the Washington navy yard reached this city early in the night for the purpose of attending the meeting. The manifested considerable interest in the speeches which were made.

New Railway Project.

The Virginia corporation commission has granted a charter to the Washington and Virginia Transit Company, with power to construct and operate an electric line for passenger and freight transportation, the line to begin at or near the south end of the new highway bridge across the Potomac and extend through Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudoun counties to Aldie, a distance of about thirty-five miles. The proposed line will take in Glencarlyn, East and West Falls Church, Fairfax Court House, Centerville and the Bull Run battlefield, and will give easy access to an extensive and prosperous farming country between Fairfax and Aldie.

Enterprise in this matter is evidenced by the fact that right-of-way has already been secured over a considerable portion of the contemplated route, and arrangements are now being made to begin work of construction in the early autumn. All the officers and directors of the company are men now living on the line of the proposed road, and some of them are business men of Washington city who know the growing need of desirable railway communication between their section of Virginia and Washington.

The officers and directors are: President, M. E. Church of Falls Church, Va.; first vice president, W. C. Pennwitt of Glencarlyn, Va.; second vice president, M. C. Mitchell of Glencarlyn, Va.; secretary, John B. Henderson, jr., of Ballston, Va.; treasurer, Charles A. Kolb, of Barcroft, Va. Directors: Gen. S. A. Burdett of Glencarlyn, J. E. Douglas of Aldie, C. E. Town and Charles H. Seaton, both af Glencarlyn.

Deaths of Former Residents.

Dr. T. G. Lockerman, one of the oldest residents of Georgetown, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning at his residence, 3226 N street northwest. He had been in feeble health for some time past. Mr. Lockerman was born in Kentucky in 1825 and came to Georgetown about 1875, previous to which time he practiced his profession in Alexandria. He was one of the foremost of American dentists. Mr. Lockerman was a member of Potomac Lodge, No. 5, F. A. A. M. (York Rite), as well as of the Scottish Rite, and in 1901 attained to the thirty-third and last degree of Scottish Rite Masonry. He was a member of Christ Episcopal Church, Georgetown. Mrs. Luckerman died several years ago.

Mr. Albert Waterman, aged 21 years, son of Mr. Moses Waterman, formerly of this city, died at his home in Baltimore early this morning. Last January while practicing in a gymnasium he fell and injured his chest. Consumption followed and this morning he died.

Death of Mr. Wingfield.

Mr. Samuel P. Wingfield, a well-known resident, died at his home on Patrick street, between Prince and Duke, at an early hour this morning. The deceased had recently been critically ill. He leaves a widow and one child. Mr. Wingfield was a native of Lynchburg, but had lived in Alexandria for several years, having conducted a saloon at the northwest corner of Duke and Fayette streets. The deceased was a member of the Red Men, Elks and Eagles of this city, and two members of each organization will accompany the remains to the Southern Railway depot tomorrow morning, from which point they will be forwarded at 7:55 o'clock to Lynchburg. Deputations of the three orders in the latter city will receive the remains upon their arrival there.

Disorderly Proceedings.

As was stated in the Gazette at the time, a row occurred between two women at the corner of Princess and Pitt streets about 7 o'clock last Monday morning in which a man became involved. The women had been riding about the neighborhood in a hack and becoming disorderly the driver had refused to transport them any farther. During the disturbance one of the women was struck over the head with a bottle. Officers Roberts and Young today arrested the parties and they left collateral for their appearance in the Police Court at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

When the case was called this evening the parties concerned failed to appear and forfeited their collateral.

Accident on Trestle.

The electric train which left Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night had a narrow escape while on the trestle over Columbia turnpike, a short distance this side of the Long Bridge. A horse had made its way out on the structure and was struck by the train while the latter was going at rapid speed. The animal was killed and the cars jumped the track, but fortunately remained on the bridge. The body of the horse had to be cut in pieces and forced through the structure to the road. Some difficulty was experienced in replacing the cars on the rails, and travel was impeded until 1:05 this morning.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Alfred Lane, jr., colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Five negroes—two men and three women—arrested by Officers Mayhugh and Patterson charged with disorderly conduct, were arraigned. Two were dismissed and the others fined $5 each.

John Ball, a colored boy, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson charged with cutting another colored boy named Albert Jordan, was fined $5.

Fire.

Shortly before one o'clock this morning an unoccupied frame house on the corner of the alley on Royal street, between Duke and Wolfe, was found to be burning. There was at first some confusion as to the location of the fire, but the apparatus finally reached the scene and subdued the flames before any serious damage resulted. There is every reason to believe the house was set on fire, as high weeds leading to the place where the fire started were found to be trodden down.

Personal.

An engagement of much interest which has just been announced, is that of Miss Margaret Page Dame, the eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Nelson Page Dame, of Ossining, N. Y., to Mr. William C. Worthington, of Washington. The wedding, it is stated, will be solemnized within the near future, but the date has not yet been determined upon. The ceremony will take place at Ossining, N. Y., where Miss Dame now makes her home, and a number of Winchester people will be present.—[Winchester Star.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Miss Judith Cutler, sister of Rev. H. J. Cutler, pastor of St. Mary's Church, in this city, who died in Baltimore on Sunday, took place this morning from St. Mary's Church. The services were celebrated with a solemn high requiem mass, with Rev. D. J. Coleman, of Fredericksburg, celebrant; Rev. Dr. Flinn, president of Mount St. Mary's College, deacon, and Mr. Wm. D. Delaney, of this city, who is studying for the priesthood, as subdeacon. A sextette, under the leadership of Mrs. Jacob Brill, and assisted by Miss Mai R. Greenwell, sang the beautiful and solemn funeral service. Rev. Dr. Flinn preached the sermon. Among other things he said that though a stranger in the city, it had edified him to have seen so many sincere expressions of sympathy for Father Cutler not only by Catholics, but by Protestants, which showed the high regard in which the pastor of St. Mary's Church was held in the city. He closed by paying a beautiful tribute to the life of the deceased. The pallbearers were Dr. M. D. Delaney, Dr. E. A. Gorman, Messrs. J. P. Laphen, F. T. Quinn, Thomas C. Hoy, J. D. Normoyle and Walter M. Donnelly. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

The jury was composed of residents of Fairfax county, and after several witnesses had been examined a verdict was render exonerating the railway companies and the contractors from blame. As was stated in the Gazette, the bodies of four of the men will be interred in Bethel Cemetery, and that of the fifth one will be buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

General Emmon Clark, a former colonel of the Seventh Regiment of the New York State National Guard, died at his home in New York today, aged 78. He served with the Seventh Regiment during the civil war.

All records were broken last week in the number of patents issued by the United States Patent Office, the total being 844. The next highest issue for any one week was 828, in May 1903. The inventions upon which patents were granted last week were of all sorts, from tin whistles to steam engines.

Bombarded by Russian Gunboat.

A dispatch from Canea, Crete, says the Russian gunboat Khrabry has bombarded and destroyed Castelli (on the north coast of the island of Crete, about 18 miles east of Retimo) because the insurgents there opposed the landing of a Russian force to take over the custom house. A boat party which was sent ashore from the Khrabry was repulsed, whereupon the Russian commander, after warning the insurgents to remove the women and children, opened fire. The insurgents returned the fire with small arms, wounding two Russians. The bombardment continued until the village hoisted the white flag.

There have been disturbances in Crete for a considerable length of time, the Cretans being in revolt to obtain a greater degree of independence than they now possess. Prince George of Greece is the high commissioner of the island, having been named by Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy in 1895. The Porte recently sent a circular note to its representatives in London, Rome, Paris and St. Petersburg on the subject of the revolutionary movement in Crete, expressing the hope that the powers would maintain the status quo and re-establish order in the island.

Mr. Davidson's Return.

Former Mayor Robert C. Davidson, of Baltimore, whose disappearance from that city last May created a sensation, has returned to Baltimore and effected a reconciliation with his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are now making their home on Robert street. To a reporter last night Mrs. Davidson made the following statement: "Mr. Davidson desires to say that he realizes his terrible mistake and is willing to exert himself to the utmost to make atonement." The announcement of the disappearance of Mr. Davidson was made in Baltimore on May 23 and fell upon the city like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky. About the same time Miss Laura B. Noyes, a trained nurse, whose home had been at Port Deposit, Cecil county, and with whom Mr. Davidson had often been in public, also departed.

Looking to President.

Hundreds of miners from Mahanoy City, Pa., many of them foreigners, are making preparations to go to Wilkesbarre on Thursday to hear President Roosevelt's address. The majority of the miners believe that the President is going to Wilkesbarre to address them and not the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. They also believe that he is going upon the invitation of John Mitchell, president of the United Mineworkers. The officers of the union are telling the miners that Mr. Mitchell stands very close to the President and can induce him to do almost anything, even to turning the power of the federal government against the operators in case there is another strike and the miners put up as bold a front as they did in 1902. This latter argument is being used extensively by the agitators to strengthen the union for the strife which they are determined to declare upon the expiration of the present wage agreement on April 1, 1906. They believe that the conviction that the President is in direct sympathy with them, and that he believes that their union should be recognized by the operators, would greatly improve the morale of the miners, and they are sparing no effort to delude them into this belief.

Midshipman Jackson Found.

Midshipman Robert Jackson, of Virginia, who had been missing since a week ago last Friday, when he left his ship, the Missouri, then lying at New York, has been located by his father in Quebec. He was working to make enough money to return to his ship. He has gone to the Missouri at Bar Harbor Maine, with his father. Jackson says his actions are unaccountable to him. As if he were in a trance, he says, he wandered away from New York. When he recovered his senses and realized the seriousness of his situation his first thought was to secret himself until he had made enough money to return to his ship and prove his honor. He is prepared to meet whatever punishment may be imposed, and declares his only excuse is that the first few days after he left his ship are blank to him, "In tracing him from Boston, through Montreal to Quebec," said his father, "I found unmistakable evidence that from the time he left the Missouri he was not himself, and that by some strange means his judgment had been rendered inactive. I am pretty well convinced of the cause, and shall leave nothing undone to get at the bottom of the strange affair."

Assassin Captured.

John Richards, a public school teacher and University of Virginia medical student, the alleged assassin of Maurice Francis, a popular young Roanoker, who was shot and killed while traveling on a Floyd county road to see his fiancee a week ago, was captured yesterday evening by the detectives who had been on his trail. Richards had been in hiding near his father's home, not far from Simpson and near where Francis was murdered. Rewards aggregating $600 had been offered for his capture, the Governor Monday night having increased the State reward $150. Richards disappeared after Francis was killed. The coroner's jury charged the crime to him, and the young lady in the case, Miss Sadie Link, testified that Richards, who was a suitor for her hand and a rival of Francis, was the latter's slayer. Details last night from Floyd show that the Baldwin detectives of Roanoke got on Richards' track at a country schoolhouse, where he spent Monday night. Bloodhounds were secured and Richards was tracked to his house. A posse surrounded the Richards home and two men went in and captured the alleged murderer. The party are going through the country to Christiansburg, where the prisoner will be lodged in the Montgomery county jail to prevent lynching.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in in case of cholera infantum. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co

CANDIDATES.

Alexandria, Va., July 19, 1905.

TO MY FELLOW CITIZENS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:

I beg to announce that I will be a candidate for the House of Delegates for the city and county of Alexandria subject to nomination by the democratic primary. It is well known to my fellow citizens that I was an aspirant for the honor of lieutenant-governor of Virginia, and that for reasons already made known to the public I felt constrained to retire from that contest. When I did so I had no intention of becoming a candidate for renomination and re-election to the House of Delegates, until urged upon me by a large number of my fellow citizens of the city and county of Alexandria, whose wishes and friendship I felt under obligations to regard. After mature consideration and yielding to what I believe to be the wish of a large body of my fellow citizens and friends representing every interest in the community, I have concluded to stand for re-nomination and re-election. I have been twice honored with the election by my people as their representative in the General Assembly of Virginia, and trust that my past record in that body will be to them a pledge and assurance of my future conduct should it be their pleasure to return me to this post of honor. In the event of my nomination and election I pledge myself faithfully to guard and defend every interest of the city and county in which I have spent my life and in which are centered all my affections and interests. I respectfully solicit the endorsement and support of the people whom I have represented to the best of my ability in the two last General Assemblies of Virginia. Very respectfully,
jy26 10t JAMES R. CATON.
